FOURTEEN BODIES AND FIFTY INJURED PERSONS TAKEN FROM A SPANISH WRECK.

TRAIN GOES INTO A RIVER

MANY CORPSES CARRIED DOWN THE STREAM, WHICH WAS RED WITH BLOOD.

Madrid, June 29.—Fourteen bodies and fifty injured persons have been extricated from the wreck of the Bilbao train which overturned at Nejerilla river Saturday night.

According to official information, thirty persons were killed and sixty others seriously injured. Many of the latter will die. Of the three hundred passengers on the train, it is stated that only six escaped unhurt. The train, which was composed of two engines and sixteen coaches, was crossing the bridge when the couplings between the engines broke. The second engine left the track and fell, followed by the entire train, into the bed of the river. Fortunately the water was low. The nearest medical attendance was a mile and a half distant, and those passengers who were least injured aided the others and did all possible until the arrival of relief trains bringing nurses, doctors and soldiers from Bilbao.

The train fell fifty feet from the bridge to the river bed, the coaches piling up in a mass of splintered wreckage. The scene is described as horrifying. Many corpses were carried down the stream, which was actually reddened with blood. It was found impossible to extricate a number of the injured who were pinned under the wreckage. A railway guard was arrested in the act of robbing the dead and narrowly escaped lynching. It is believed that the official figures underestimate the number of killed, some accounts giving the number of the dead as 100. The full extent of the catastrophe will only be known when the wreckage has been cleared away.

The latest dispatches from Saragosa, near which place the catastrophe occurred, give the number of dead as ninety, and the injured at 100. The rescue of the injured from the debris is not yet completed.

TWENTY-FOUR MINERS DEAD.

Fifty Others Injured by an Explosion of Gas.

Baratorean, Coahuila, Mexico, June 29.—Twenty-four miners were killed and about fifty others seriously injured in an explosion of gas Thursday night in Las Esperanza coal mines, the property of the Mexican Coal and Coke company. The disaster was caused by the ignition of gas by the flame from a defective lamp. The men were on the point of quitting for the day. Probably 100 men were in the mine at the time of the explosion. After the shock of the explosion those who were able to move rushed from the exits, but the falling earth and debris carried many down to death. Fully fifty miners escaped with broken limbs and scorched flesh.

At last reports the dead bodies of twenty-four men had been brought to light. Others may die of their injuries.

TWO DEAD, FIVE INJURED.

Collision on the Milwaukee Road at Des Moines.

Des Moines, June 29.—Two men are dead and five seriously injured as the result of a head-on collision that occurred in the yards of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway in this city between an accommodation train and a freight train drawn by two engines. The dead are John Erickson, Des Moines, and James Howard, brakeman, Des Moines.

The wreck was caused by the out-bound train pulling out without orders under the impression that the freight train had pulled in. Both trains were traveling at a high rate of speed.

TWO PERSONS KILLED.

Several Others Injured in a Collision at Chicago.

Chicago, June 29.—Two persons were killed and several others injured in a collision between an Archer avenue electric car and a freight train on the Belt line railway at 1 o'clock this morning. The accident occurred at the Forty-seventh street crossing.

The dead are: Miss Minnie Malstrom and unidentified man.

THEIR BOAT OVERTURNED.

Michael Fee and Miss Thena Waldum Drowned in the Sioux River.

Sioux City, Ia., June 29.—While John Sueve and his sister Dora and Michael Lee and Miss Thena Waldum were boating on the Sioux river Sunday afternoon, they got into the wake of the excursion steamer Lorain and their boat overturned. Sueve and his sister were rescued, but Lee and Miss Waldum were drowned.

Two Men Drowned.

Kansas City, June 29.—George Mitchell, a tinner, and L. J. Simmons, a carpenter, were drowned in the Kansas river Sunday night as the result of the capsizing of a ferry skiff.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

F. Seymour Barrington Arrested for Killing James P. McCann.

St. Louis, June 29.—A warrant was sworn out Sunday by Mrs. J. P. McCann charging F. Seymour Barrington with the murder of her husband, James P. McCann.

As the alleged crime was committed in St. Louis county, the city authorities gave Barrington over into the custody of Sheriff Hankon and the prisoner was taken to Clayton and placed in jail.

The body of a man supposed to be McCann, which was buried soon after being discovered several days ago at Pontias, was exhumed Sunday and an inquest was held by Coroner Koch of St. Louis county. Mrs. McCann positively identified the body as that of her husband, partially basing the identification upon a gold tooth. Others who knew McCann intimately also identified the body.

Coroner Koch made a rigid investigation and returned a verdict that two bullet holes were found in the dead man's head and bullets were extracted corresponding in calibre to that of the revolver found in Barrington's trunk at the Union station here Saturday night. He also found a deep gash in the throat and a deep cut in the palm of his right hand, leading to the assumption that the man had been attacked first with a knife and in defending himself had seized the blade, which cut deeply into his hand, that finally his throat was cut, and he was ultimately shot twice in the head.

Barrington maintains his innocence.

Georgianna Goddu and Dr. Payette Shot by a Clerk at Boston.

Lowell, Mass., June 29.—Joseph Lamont, a clerk in the office of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, at Boston last night shot and dangerously wounded Georgianna Goddu, aged twenty-two, of Winchester, and Dr. Adelaide Payette, aged thirty-five, of this city, and is still at large.

The shooting was the outcome of Lamont's infatuation with Miss Alexenne Goddu, aged nineteen, a sister of Georgianna, and occurred in front of the residence of Dr. Payette, whom the Goddu sisters were visiting. Lamont held Georgianna Goddu in conversation for over an hour and when Dr. Payette came out of the house to prevail upon him to go away the latter fired two shots, one of which lodged in Miss Goddu's left breast, while the other struck Dr. Payette in the groin.

Miss Goddu is in a critical condition and cannot recover. Dr. Payette will recover.

FIGHT IN BREATHITT COUNTY.

One Feudist Killed and Two Others Seriously Injured.

Jackson, Ky., June 29.—In a feud fight Saturday night near Daisy Hill, Breathitt county, Hiram Barnett was killed and John Henry Hecker and Joseph Hecker were seriously injured. The men, with Samuel and Silas Barnett, met at the home of Miss Lella Burns, niece of Burns Fitzpatrick, who was the only juror against the conviction of Curtis Jett.

While discussing the course of Juroi Fitzpatrick, John Henry Hecker, the friend of Miss Burns, resented what was said and all soon began shooting. There have been no arrests and no one can tell who fired the shots taking effect.

SPECTATORS EXCITED.

Threaten to Lynch a Ballplayer for Hitting Another One With a Bat.

Salt Lake, Utah, June 29.—A lynching was narrowly averted during the baseball game between the Ogden and Salt Lake teams at Ogden Sunday afternoon. In the sixth inning Marshall of the Salt Lake team and Hausen, pitcher for Ogden, became involved in a quarrel, during which Marshall hit Hausen over the head with a bat, seriously injuring him. There was great excitement among the spectators, who swarmed into the field, threatening to kill Marshall, who was hustled from the grounds and lodged in jail. Hausen was taken to the hospital.

RIOT IN IRELAND.

Hundreds of Police Charge a Mob and Many Are Injured.

London, June 29.—During the unweaving at Arklow, Ireland, Sunday, of a monument to the rebels who fell in the battle of Arklow in 1798, at which ceremony 30,000 Nationalists were present, the latter collided with a band of street preachers, one of whom narrowly escaped death at the hands of the mob. The house in which he took refuge was wrecked. Several hundred policemen were obliged to charge the Nationalists, and stones were thrown, batons freely used and many persons were injured before the mob was mastered.

CROATIANS IN REVOLT.

Martial Law Proclaimed on Account of Rioting.

Vienna, June 29.—The Neue Freie Presse publishes a dispatch that armed peasants attacked the gendarmes at Lugberg, Croatia, Friday, whereupon the gendarmes fired a volley, killing four men and wounding others. The peasants elsewhere in Croatia, it is added, are rising in revolt. Martial law was proclaimed at Lugberg recently on account of rioting.

Killed by a Colored Man.

Toledo, O., June 29.—Max Schleifstein was shot and killed in his saloon last night by William Jones, colored. The latter and Al Wilford, the bartender, had a quarrel over a game of poker and Jones pulled a revolver. Schleifstein jumped between the men and received the bullet. Jones escaped.

VIEW THE FATAL SPOT

THOUSANDS OF PERSONS VISIT THE PLACE WHERE GEORGE WHITE PERISHED.

RELIC HUNTERS AT WORK

BUSHES BEHIND WHICH MISS BISHOP WAS MURDERED ARE CARRIED AWAY.

Wilmington, Del., June 29.—Thousands of persons Sunday visited the scene where George F. White, the negro, was burned to death last Monday by a mob for the murder of Miss Helen Bishop. They came from all the small towns in this vicinity and the hundreds journeyed to the execution place from Chester, Pa., and Philadelphia. The only evidence that remains of the work of the mob are three cobblestones on one of which this inscription has been placed in indelible ink:

"Here is all that remains of White."

The bushes behind which the assault and murder occurred have been cut for a distance of several hundred yards and carried away by relic hunters.

The preachers without exception condemned the execution, but public sentiment is overwhelmingly on the side of the lynchers. Rev. K. L. Wood, Presbyterian minister, who has come in for much criticism for his sermon of last Sunday night in which he suggested lynching in case the negro escaped speedy punishment at the hands of the law, did not refer to the lynching or the criticisms Sunday. These criticisms were answered by his congregation in resolutions which were read during the services.

The resolutions express belief in the integrity and honesty and Christian character of the pastor and admiration for his life and work, and say that his sermon was timely, true and sensible and that the action of the mob could not be charged to his sermon.

Preaches Sensational Sermon.

Rev. Montrose W. Thornton, colored, pastor of the First A. M. E. church of this city, preached a sensational sermon to his congregation Sunday night. The church was crowded. He said in part:

"The white man in the face of his boasted civilization stands before my eyes tonight the demon of the world's races—a monster incarnate and in so far as the negro race is concerned, seems to give no quarter. The white man is a heathen, a fiend, a monstrosity, and is equal to any act in the category of crime. I would sooner trust myself in the den of a hyena than in his arms."

"With a court, law and officers of law in his hands, the despised negro can expect no mercy, justice nor protection. The negro is unsafe anywhere in this country. He is the open prey at all times of barbarians who know no restraint."

"There is but one part left for the persecuted negro when charged with crime and when innocent. Be a law unto yourself. You are taught by this lesson of outrage to save yourself from torture at the hands of the blood-seeking public. Save your own from insult and shame. Be your own sheriff, court and jury, as was the outlaw, Tracey. Die in your tracks, perhaps drinking the blood of your pursuers. Booker Washington's charity, humanity, advice of forgiveness, love, industry and zeal will never be reciprocated by white men."

SHOOTS AN OFFICER.

Harry Keeley Tries to Square Accounts With a Policeman.

New York, June 29.—His threat that he would "do" a policeman to square accounts for the many times he had been arrested, may lead Harry Keeley of Clifton, S. I., to the electric chair. He has been arrested while his victim, Patrolman McGrath, is in an infirmary at New Brighton, so severely wounded that his life is despaired of. Keeley shot McGrath three times at Stapleton, S. I. Keeley was recently released from prison, after having served five years for manslaughter. Because of his imprisonment he vowed vengeance against the police. When McGrath attempted to arrest him Sunday because he was raising a disturbance Keeley drew a revolver and opened fire. Keeley was captured after a hard fight in which he was knocked unconscious.

DRIVEN TO THE HILLS.

Hundreds of Families Evicted by High Water of the Rio Grande River.

El Paso, Tex., June 29.—The high water of the Rio Grande north of here in New Mexico has driven hundreds of families from their homes and these have taken refuge in the foothills. Mrs. William McDonald of Berlino, N. M., who has come to El Paso, says: "The high water has practically rendered homeless every resident from Mesquite and Earham south to White Spur. All along the road in the sand hills families can be seen camping with no shelter. The heat of the sun in the hills is intolerable. Many alfalfa fields are ruined and many Mexican families are not only homeless but are living on short rations."

At El Paso the river is falling slowly.

AGITATION IN RUSSIA.

Revolutionary Movement Reported Spreading to All Parts of Empire.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—The revolutionary movement in Russia seems to be spreading unceasingly and is reaching regions hitherto free from the radical agitation.

The leaflets directed against the existing condition of Russian home affairs and demanding revolutionary changes were circulated broadcast during the month of May in thirty-four cities and towns of the empire. Serious street disturbances have occurred at various places, including Baku, Warsaw, Herdichev, Tiflis, Batoum, Balakhna and Tomsk. It is said that the anti-Semitic agitation at Eastertide extended throughout the entire pale of the Jewish settlements. The monarchial society organized at Pinsk circulated leaflets beginning:

"Brother Workers, Orthodox and Catholic: Christ has arisen. Let us embrace, kiss and go kill the Jews."

At Rostov, on the Don, it is said, an officer of gendarmerie has been going about the bazaar telling the people that it is the Jews and socialists who prevent their "little father," the czar, from giving all his children everything they need, and that, therefore, the socialists must be killed off.

Swarms of detectives at Rostov are trying to locate a socialistic printing office.

A theater demonstration at Kevo was recently suppressed by detectives, who scattered the audience and clubbed those who shouted "Down with the autocrats."

The multitude of arrests, in addition to domiciliary visitations, which have taken place among army officers, literary men, teachers, workmen, students and other classes at St. Petersburg, Kiev, Odessa, Vihriballen and in fact, in the cities and towns throughout the empire, attest the colossal growth of the revolutionary agitation. It is naturally strongest in the pale of the Jewish settlements, but it has reached such far off places as Kostrom, on the river Volga, a region hitherto free from any radical movements.

BOUND FOR BOSTON.

Thousands of School Teachers Will Attend Educational Convention.

Boston, June 29.—Before the present week is ended special trains from all parts of the country will be speeding toward Boston with thousands of school teachers who will come to attend the forty-second annual convention of the National Educational association, which opens its sessions Monday, July 6.

Already the vanguard of the 25,000 teachers expected has arrived. The permanent secretary, Dr. Irwin Shepard of Winona, Minn., is in town with a corps of registration experts. One body is coming here from Seattle, by special train with the avowed purpose of capturing the next convention of the National Educational association for Portland, Ore.

Advance notices are to the effect that among the delegations will come the following:

Madison, Wis., 250; Milwaukee, 200; Minneapolis and St. Paul, more than 200; Chicago about 1,000; New York, 1,500.

METEOR THE VICTOR.

Emperor William's Yacht Wins a Race at Kiel.

Kiel, Prussia, June 29.—The emperor's yacht Meteor crossed the line first in Sunday's race for cruising schooners, Class A, and kept the lead all the way over the 30-mile course, beating the Hamburg in a 19-knot breeze, by 1½ minutes. The emperor's yacht Iduna was 20 minutes behind.

The emperor had as his guests on board the Meteor during the race United States Ambassador Tower, Prince Henry of Prussia, Prince Adolph, Count Tiele-Wenckler, Count Redern and United States Naval Attache T. M. Potts.

The American tars caused considerable wonderment to the Germans by driving around in carriages and cabs. At least half of Kiel's limited supply of these vehicles is thus nightly employed.

SITUATION VERY GRAVE.

Turkey and Bulgaria Said to Be on the Brink of War.

London, June 29.—A dispatch from Vienna to the Morning Leader says the situation in the Vilayet of Adrianople is very grave. There are many indications that Bulgaria and Turkey regard an outbreak of war as a probable contingency. It is reliably stated that the Turkish officials are organizing a regular persecution of the Bulgarian inhabitants, their villages being razed to the ground and many notable Bulgarians being imprisoned on slight pretext.

The Turkish troops in the vilayet number 120,000.

New Stock About All Taken.

Philadelphia, June 29.—The time limit for subscription to the Pennsylvania railroad's issue of $75,000,000 of new stock expired at noon. It is known that virtually all of the stock has been subscribed and the Speyer-Kuhn-Loeb underwriting syndicate will have little more to do than collect about $2,000,000 commissions.

Insane Man Kills His Wife.

Napanee, Ont., June 29.—Gideon Burts of Anglesia township, near Cloy killed his wife Sunday by battering her head with a stove lifter. He was insane. After committing the crime Burts hunted up a constable and invited him to see what he had done.

Quiet at Richmond.

Richmond, Va., June 29.—The strike situation last night was entirely quiet. Cars were run on all lines under military protection, as usual.

NO CAUSE FOR QUARREL.

United States Has Right to Present Jewish Petition.

Washington, June 29.—The officials of the state department assert positively that a close examination of precedent justifies the presentation by the United States government of the Jewish petition to the Russian government and that no government has a right to object to the presentation of such a petition, nor has the government a right to object if the presentation is declined. This means that the United States will not find grounds on which to quarrel with Russia if the czar refuses to receive the petition now being prepared by the counsel of B'nai B'rith.

There were no developments during the day respecting the petition save an announcement that it is the purpose of the framers to have it numerously signed by prominent Christians as well as Jews. It has been intimated that some changes were made in the text of the document and it is said that in this case the president and Secretary Hay will closely scrutinize it to make sure that it contains no objectionable language.

WITH CLOSEST ATTENTION.

Action of American Government Watched at Vienna.

Vienna, June 29.—The action of the American government concerning the petition to the czar about the Kishineff massacre is watched with the closest attention here on account of its possible effect on Eastern affairs.

The Neue Freie Presse says: "President Roosevelt's influence with Russia will redound to his undying fame. The Russian autocracy cannot remain unmoved by the fact that the president is an advocate of humanity, reminds it in the face of the whole world of the duties it owes to humanity and justice."

Christian Scientists Hold Communion.

Boston, June 29.—The annual communion of the mother church of the Christian Science denomination, the first Church of Christ, Scientist, was held at Mechanics' hall Sunday, the three congregations aggregating over 15,000 persons.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Employer and employee in New York's labor trouble seem to be still far apart.

Perry R. Lorimer, nineteen years old was drowned in Pickerel lake, at St. Paul, Sunday.

Great damage is reported from the

storm over the southern portion of West Virginia.

The postoffice at Spring Lake, Mich., was robbed Sunday. The safe was cracked and the burglars secured several hundred dollars in cash and stamps.

Heartbroken at the death of his wife and children, bankrupt in pocket and in hope, Theodore Walkopf put a bullet through his brain Sunday at New York.

L. M. Fay, president of the Democratic Printing company, and of the Wisconsin Life Insurance company, died suddenly at Madison, Wis., of heart trouble.

Theodore Davis Boal, a prominent architect of Denver, was seriously injured at Salt Lake City by being thrown from a carriage while trying to stop a runaway team.

The king of Roumania has withdrawn all the Roumanian decorations bestowed on officers of the Sixth Serbian infantry, of which regiment he recently resigned the honorary colonelcy.

WORK OF WHITECAPS.

Indiana Man Taken From Home and Badly Beaten.

Columbus, Ind., June 29.—William Harden, who lives one mile south of Nashville, Ind., was taken from his home early Sunday by five men and badly beaten. His wife went to his assistance, and in the scuffle which followed her arm was badly bruised. Harden claims to know three of the five men. It is said that he was white-capped on the alleged ground that he would not work. He has a wife and four children.

Strike Probably Averted.

Pittsburg, June 29.—The threatened strike of the machinists in this city on July 1 was probably averted Sunday by the men agreeing to a compromise.

The peasants elsewhere in Croatia, it is added, are rising in revolt. Martial law was proclaimed at Lugberg recently on account of rioting.

Killed by a Colored Man.

Toledo, O., June 29.—Max Schleifstein was shot and killed in his saloon last night by William Jones, colored. The latter and Al Wilford, the bartender, had a quarrel over a game of poker and Jones pulled a revolver. Schleifstein jumped between the men and received the bullet. Jones escaped.

VIEW THE FATAL SPOT

THOUSANDS OF PERSONS VISIT THE PLACE WHERE GEORGE WHITE PERISHED.

BUSHES BEHIND WHICH MISS BISHOP WAS MURDERED ARE CARRIED AWAY.

Wilmington, Del., June 29.—Thousands of persons Sunday visited the scene where George F. White, the negro, was burned to death last Monday by a mob for the murder of Miss Helen Bishop. They came from all the small towns in this vicinity and the hundreds journeyed to the execution place from Chester, Pa., and Philadelphia. The only evidence that remains of the work of the mob are three cobblestones on one of which this inscription has been placed in indelible ink:

"Here is all that remains of White."

The bushes behind which the assault and murder occurred have been cut for a distance of several hundred yards and carried away by relic hunters.

The preachers without exception condemned the execution, but public sentiment is overwhelmingly on the side of the lynchers. Rev. K. L. Wood, Presbyterian minister, who has come in for much criticism for his sermon of last Sunday night in which he suggested lynching in case the negro escaped speedy punishment at the hands of the law, did not refer to the lynching or the criticisms Sunday. These criticisms were answered by his congregation in resolutions which were read during the services.

The resolutions express belief in the integrity and honesty and Christian character of the pastor and admiration for his life and work, and say that his sermon was timely, true and sensible and that the action of the mob could not be charged to his sermon.

Preaches Sensational Sermon.

Rev. Montrose W. Thornton, colored, pastor of the First A. M. E. church of this city, preached a sensational sermon to his congregation Sunday night. The church was crowded. He said in part:

"The white man in the face of his boasted civilization stands before my eyes tonight the demon of the world's races—a monster incarnate and in so far as the negro race is concerned, seems to give no quarter. The white man is a heathen, a fiend, a monster, and is equal to any act in the category of crime. I would sooner trust myself in the den of a hyena than in his arms."

"With a court, law and officers of law in his hands, the despised negro can expect no mercy, justice nor protection. The negro is unsafe anywhere in this country. He is the open prey at all times of barbarians who know no restraint."

"There is but one part left for the persecuted negro when charged with crime and when innocent. Be a law unto yourself. You are taught by this lesson of outrage to save yourself from torture at the hands of the blood-seeking public. Save your race from insult and shame. Be your own sheriff, court and jury, as was the outlaw, Tracey. Die in your tracks, perhaps drinking the blood of your pursuers. Booker Washington's charity, humanity, advice of forgiveness, love, industry and zeal will never be reciprocated by white men."

SHOOTS AN OFFICER.

Harry Keeley Tries to Square Accounts With a Policeman.

New York, June 29.—His threat that he would "do" a policeman to square accounts for the many times he had been arrested, may lead Harry Keeley of Clifton, S. I., to the electric chair. He has been arrested while his victim, Patrolman McGrath, is in an infirmary at New Brighton, so severely wounded that his life is despaired of. Keeley shot McGrath three times at Stapleton, S. I. Keeley was recently released from prison, after having served five years for manslaughter. Because of his imprisonment he vowed vengeance against the police. When McGrath attempted to arrest him Sunday because he was raising a disturbance Keeley drew a revolver and opened fire. Keeley was captured after a hard fight in which he was knocked unconscious.

DRIVEN TO THE HILLS.

Hundreds of Families Evicted by High Water of the Rio Grande River.

El Paso, Tex., June 29.—The high water of the Rio Grande north of here in New Mexico has driven hundreds of families from their homes and these have taken refuge in the foothills. Mrs. William McDonald of Berlin, N. M., who has come to El Paso, says: "The high water has practically rendered homeless every resident from Mesquite and Earlim south to White Spur. All along the road in the sand hills families can be seen camping with no shelter. The heat of the sun in the hills is intolerable. Many alfalfa fields are ruined and many Mexican families are not only homeless but are living on short rations."

At El Paso the river is falling slowly.

AGITATION IN RUSSIA.

Revolutionary Movement Reported Spreading to All Parts of Empire.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—The revolutionary movement in Russia seems to be spreading unceasingly and is reaching regions hitherto free from the radical agitation.

The leaflets directed against the existing condition of Russian home affairs and demanding revolutionary changes were circulated broadcast during the month of May in thirty-four cities and towns of the empire. Serious street disturbances have occurred at various places, including Baku, Warsaw, Berdichev, Tiflis, Batoum, Balakhna and Tomsk. It is said that the anti-Semitic agitation at Eastertide extended throughout the entire pale of the Jewish settlements. The monarchial society organized at Pinsk circulated leaflets beginning:

"Brother Workers, Orthodox and Catholic: Christ has arisen. Let us embrace, kiss and go kill the Jews."

At Rostov, on the Don, it is said, an officer of gendarmie has been going about the bazaar telling the people that it is the Jews and socialists who prevent their "little father," the czar, from giving all his children everything they need, and that, therefore, the socialists must be killed off.

Swarms of detectives at Rostov are trying to locate a socialistic printing office.

A theater demonstration at Kevno was recently suppressed by detectives, who scattered the audience and clubbed those who shouted "Down with the autocrats."

The multitude of arrests, in addition to domiciliary visitations, which have taken place among army officers, literary men, teachers, workmen, students and other classes at St. Petersburg, Kiev, Odessa, Vinnitsa and, in fact, in the cities and towns throughout the empire, attest the colossal growth of the revolutionary agitation. It is naturally strongest in the pale of the Jewish settlements, but it has reached such far off places as Kostrom, on the river Volga, a region hitherto free from any radical movements.

BOUND FOR BOSTON.

Thousands of School Teachers Will Attend Educational Convention.

Boston, June 29.—Before the present week is ended special trains from all parts of the country will be speeding toward Boston with thousands of school teachers who will come to attend the forty-second annual convention of the National Educational association, which opens its sessions Monday, July 6.

Already the vanguard of the 25,000 teachers expected has arrived. The permanent secretary, Dr. Irwin Shepard of Winona, Minn., is in town with a corps of registration experts.

One body is coming here from Seattle, by special train with the avowed purpose of capturing the next convention of the National Educational association for Portland, Ore.

Advance notices are to the effect that among the delegations will come the following:

Emperor William's Yacht Wins a Race at Kiel.

Kiel, Prussia, June 29.—The emperor's yacht Meteor crossed the line first in Sunday's race for cruising schooners, Class A, and kept the lead all the way over the 20-mile course, beating the Hamburg in a 10-knot breeze, by 1½ minutes. The empress' yacht Iduna was 20 minutes behind.

The emperor had as his guests on board the Meteor during the race United States Ambassador Tower, Prince Henry of Prussia, Prince Adalbert, Count Tiele-Wenckler, Count Redern and United States Naval Attache T. M. Potts.

The American tars caused considerable wonderment to the Germans by driving around in carriages and cabs. At least half of Kiel's limited supply of these vehicles is thus nightly employed.

SITUATION VERY GRAVE.

Turkey and Bulgaria Said to Be on the Brink of War.

London, June 29.—A dispatch from Vienna to the Morning Leader says the situation in the Vilayet of Adrianople is very grave. There are many indications that Bulgaria and Turkey regard an outbreak of war as a probable contingency. It is reliably stated that the Turkish officials are organizing a regular persecution of the Bulgarian inhabitants, their villages being razed to the ground and many notable Bulgarians being imprisoned on slight pretext.

The Turkish troops in the vilayet number 129,000.

New Stock About All Taken.

Philadelphia, June 29.—The time limit for subscription to the Pennsylvania railroad's issue of $75,000,000 of new stock expired at noon. It is known that virtually all of the stock has been subscribed and the Speyer-Kuhn-Loeb underwriting syndicate will have little more to do than collect about $2,000,000 commissions.

Insane Man Kills His Wife.

Napanee, Ont., June 29.—Gideon Burts of Anglesia township, near Cloy killed his wife Sunday by battering her head with a stove lifter. He was insane. After committing the crime Burts hunted up a constable and invited him to see what he had done.

Quiet at Richmond.

Richmond, Va., June 29.—The strike situation last night was entirely quiet. Cars were run on all lines under military protection, as usual.

United States Has Right to Present Jewish Petition.

Washington, June 29.—The officials of the state department assert positively that a close examination of the United States government of the Jewish petition to the Russian government and that no government has a right to object to the presentation of such a petition, nor has the government a right to object if the presentation is declined. This means that the United States will not find grounds on which to quarrel with Russia if the czar refuses to receive the petition now being prepared by the counsel of B'nai B'rith.

There were no developments during the day respecting the petition save an announcement that it is the purpose of the framers to have it numerously signed by prominent Christians as well as Jews. It has been intimated that some changes were made in the text of the document and it is said that in this case the president and Secretary Hay will closely scrutinize it to make sure that it contains no objectionable language.

WITH CLOSEST ATTENTION.

Action of American Government Watched at Vienna.

Vienna, June 29.—The action of the American government concerning the petition to the czar about the Kishineff massacre is watched with the closest attention here on account of its possible effect on Eastern affairs.

The Neue Freie Presse says: "President Roosevelt's influence with Russia will redound to his undying fame. The Russian autocracy cannot remain unmoved by the fact that the president, as an advocate of humanity, reminds it in the face of the whole world of the duties it owes to humanity and justice."

Christian Scientists Hold Communion.

Boston, June 29.—The annual communion of the mother church of the Christian Science denomination, the first Church of Christ, Scientist, was held at Mechanics' hall Sunday, the three congregations aggregating over 15,000 persons.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Employer and employee in New York's labor trouble seem to be still far apart.

Percy R. Lorimer, nineteen years old was drowned in Pickerel lake, at St. Paul, Sunday.

Great damage is reported from the

storm over the southern portion of West Virginia.

The postoffice at Spring Lake, Mich., was robbed Sunday. The safe was cracked and the burglars secured several hundred dollars in cash and stamps.

Heartbroken at the death of his wife and children, bankrupt in pocket and in hope, Theodore Walkopf put a bullet through his brain Sunday at New York.

L. M. Fay, president of the Democratic Printing company, and of the Wisconsin Life Insurance company, died suddenly at Madison, Wis., of heart trouble.

Theodore Davis Boal, a prominent architect of Denver, was seriously injured at Salt Lake City by being thrown from a carriage while trying to stop a runaway team.

The king of Roumania has withdrawn all the Roumanian decorations bestowed on officers of the Sixth Serbian infantry, of which regiment he recently resigned the honorary colonelcy.

WORK OF WHITECAPS.

Indiana Man Taken From Home and Badly Beaten.

Columbus, Ind., June 29.—William Harden, who lives one mile south of Nashville, Ind., was taken from his home early Sunday by five men and badly beaten. His wife went to his assistance, and in the scuffle which followed her arm was badly bruised. Harden claims to know three of the five men. It is said that he was white-capped on the alleged ground that he would not work. He has a wife and four children.

Strike Probably Averted.

PANAMA CANAL TREATY.

Early Ratification Without Amendment Probable.

Washington, June 28.—Representatives in Washington of the Panama canal company have received cable dispatches from Bogota to the effect that the sentiment in Colombia of intense opposition to the ratification of the Panama canal treaty has undergone considerable change. While there is still much opposition, the dispatches say the prospects are for the ratification of the treaty without amendment, earlier than was expected.

A POETICAL ANATHEMA.

Rev. Dr. Hillis Describes Advantages of Trip to Hades on Brooklyn Car.

"To Hades on a Brooklyn car" is the title of the latest poetical effusion of the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, says the New York Herald.

Dr. Hillis when seen at his residence the other day said that he had written a poem on a recent Sunday while filled with "righteous indignation" over having been stalled on a trolley car while trying to catch a train at the Grand Central station. He had an engagement to deliver an address in Connecticut in the evening. He took a trolley car to cross the bridge, and when about half way over there was a block.

Dr. Hillis left the car and walked to the New York side, where he caught a train to Fort-second street, arriving at the Grand Central station to find that he was just one minute behind the train. The doctor's blood was up. Sitting down in the station, he composed the following anathema:

TO HADES ON A BROOKLYN CAR.

Lines Composed In a Brooklyn Rapid Transit Car by a Tramp.

[Dedicated to the president, with apologies to William Watson.]

For me this car's a goodly place wherein to die.

For me, to sudden changes grown averse.

All violent contrasts fain avoid would I

On passing from this world into a worse.

When Tantalus, by gods accursed, his fate endured,

He saw the water from his lips recede.

My goal not e'er recedes, while I'm immured

Four deep in car mates' oaths of every breed.

While creeping, shivering, jerking, we go

Inch by inch.

My home, the place I long for, shines afar.

Some day, when summons comes to Hades, what a cinch

To take a Brooklyn rapid transit car!

"It is all right for Hades, because no one is in a hurry to get there, but for the higher place we want better service than is now given," said Dr. Hillis, when asked to explain the wherefore of it.

RADIUM TEST IN CHICAGO.

Photographs Taken by Substance That Emits Light and Heat.

A minute quantity of the rare metal known as "radium" from the fact that it has been discovered to radiate heat and light spontaneously has reached Chicago. Its property of diffusing light has been tested by W. C. Fuchs, X ray expert, and a successful photograph has been made by the aid of the light from the radium alone, says the Chicago News.

One grain of the precious substance, which retails at about $1,000,000 a pound, was received recently by Mr. Fuchs from Professor Max Slaby of the University of Berlin. The sum of $150 was paid for the contents of the tiny hermetically sealed glass receptacle, this being less than the price asked for absolutely pure radium, as a small quantity of bromide was mixed with it. Enough pure radium to equal the weight of a one carat white diamond would be worth about $3,200, while the diamond could be bought for $150.

The radio activity of radium varies according to its approximate purity, ranging from forty times to 7,000 times the radio activity of uranium. That secured by Mr. Fuchs has the minimum radio activity. When examined in a dark room the glass receptacle containing the substance appears to glow with a soft whitish light.

In experimenting with the light shed by the radium a stone removed by the aid of the X ray from the kidney of a patient was placed on a photographic plate which had first been enclosed in a black envelope, excluding all light from the plate. The glass receptacle containing the radium was then placed over the plate at a height of about an inch and a half and allowed to remain in that position for twenty-four hours. The plate was then developed in the usual way, and a good photograph was found to have been secured. Had the radium been absolutely pure the photograph could probably have been taken in a few minutes.

The substance maintains a temperature of 1 1/2 degrees C. above the surrounding atmosphere, which means a continual radiation of heat. If kept in one's pocket it is said that it would cause an X ray burn on the skin within a period of nine days.

Water in the Kalahari Desert.

The bushmen in the Kalahari desert often live scores of miles from places where water comes to the surface. During a certain part of the year sharp storms pass over the Kalahari, covering the apparently arid region with the brightest of verdure and filling for a few short days the water courses with roaring torrents. The bushmen know how to find water by digging in the bottoms of these dried up river beds. They dig a hole three or four feet deep and then tie a sponge to the end of a hollow reed. The sponge absorbs the moisture at the bottom of the hole, and the natives draw it into their mouths through the reed and then empty it into calabashes for future use.

The animals that inhabit such wastes as the Kalahari are of course accustomed to living upon very small and infrequent supplies of water. The Bechuanas do not lead their cattle to the drinking places oftener than once in two or three days. It is said that goats in the Kalahari frequently pass months without water.

Injured by Tallyho Overturning.

San Diego, Cal., June 29.—By the overturning of a tallyho Sunday Lieutenant Mason of the French cruiser Protest, now in the harbor, was severely injured and A. Blochman and his son, Al Blochman, bankers of this city, were also badly injured.

DISASTER TO BRITISH.

Mad Mullah Said to Have Destroyed Five Posts in Somaliland.

Paris, June 29.—A dispatch from Jibuti, Abyssinia, says the Mad Mullah has destroyed five British posts between Burao and Eobote, in Somaliland.

Thirty-nine British officers out of forty-two white men were killed in the engagements. Two thousand native soldiers were made prisoners.

A dispatch from Aden ten days ago stated that the British lines of communication between Berbera and Bohotle were then threatened by the rebellious mullah and his forces. Reinforcements comprising three companies of the Hampshire regiment and 300 native soldiers were ordered to proceed from Aden to Somaliland June 20. About 14,000 native Abyssinians have been co-operating with the British forces in their efforts to check the mullah.

The campaign of Brigadier General W. H. Manning, who was sent to Somaliland last November after the reverses suffered by Colonel Swaine, having proved unsuccessful, he was ordered superseded June 21 by Major General C. C. Egerton, in command of the Punjab frontier.

It was reported from Aden June 23 that General Manning and Colonel Cobbe, who, it was feared, had been cut off near Damot, had succeeded in joining their forces and had reached Bohotle in safety.

Operations against the mullah already have cost the British government more than $2,000,000 and considerable loss of life.

Bamboo Opals.

Bamboo opals are peculiar gems which are sometimes found in the stem of the bamboo. This gem is very rare from the fact that not one in a thousand bamboo stems contains it. These vegetable growths are called tabacur by the Filipinos. Some of them are so similar—that is, they exhibit so perfectly the characteristics of the opal—that even experts frequently fail to distinguish them from the gem.

Why He Applauded.

"Are you fond of music?" asked a stranger of the young man at the concert who was applauding vigorously after a pretty girl had sung a song in a very painful way.

"Not particularly," replied the young man frankly, "but I am extremely fond of the musician."

Labor Council May Appeal.

Minneapolis, June 29.—Albert H. Hull, one of the attorneys for the Trades and Labor Council, against which Judge Cray has granted a permanent injunction restraining it from participating in any sympathetic strike, says that no definite decision had as yet been reached by the council in regard to appealing from the decision to the supreme court.

RECOGNIZE KING PETER.

Several Additional Powers Congratulate Servian Ruler.

Belgrade, June 29.—The kings of Italy and Roumania, President Loubet of France and Prince Nicholas of Montenegro have added their congratulations to those already received by King Peter from other chiefs of states.

These telegrams are regarded as constituting official recognition of the new ruler of Servia.

PANAMA CANAL TREATY.

Early Ratification Without Amendment Probable.

Washington, June 28.—Representatives in Washington of the Panama canal company have received cable dispatches from Bogota to the effect that the sentiment in Colombia of intense opposition to the ratification of the Panama canal treaty has undergone considerable change. While there is still much opposition, the dispatches say the prospects are for the ratification of the treaty, without amendment, earlier than was expected.

A POETICAL ANATHEMA.

Rev. Dr. Hillis Describes Advantages of Trip to Hades on Brooklyn Car.

"To Hades on a Brooklyn car" is the title of the latest poetical effusion of the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, says the New York Herald.

Dr. Hillis when seen at his residence the other day said that he had written a poem on a recent Sunday while filled with "righteous indignation" over having been stalled on a trolley car while trying to catch a train at the Grand Central station. He had an engagement to deliver an address in Connecticut in the evening. He took a trolley car to cross the bridge, and when about half way over there was a block.

Dr. Hillis left the car and walked to the New York side, where he caught a train to Forty-second street, arriving at the Grand Central station to find that he was just one minute behind the train. The doctor's blood was up. Sitting down in the station, he composed the following anathema:

TO HADES ON A BROOKLYN CAR.

Lines Composed in a Brooklyn Rapid Transit Car by a Tramp.

(Dedicated to the president, with apologies to William Watson.)

For me this car's a goodly place wherein to die.

For me, to sudden changes grown averse.

On passing from this world into a worse.

When Tantalus, by gods accursed, his fate endured,

He saw the water from his lips recede.

My goal not e'en recedes, while I'm immured.

Four deep in car mates' oaths of every breed.

While creeping, shivering, jerking, we go inch by inch.

My home, the place I long for, shines afar.

Some day, when summons comes to Hades, what a cinch.

To take a Brooklyn rapid transit car!

"It is all right for Hades, because no one is in a hurry to get there, but for the higher place we want better service than is now given," said Dr. Hillis, when asked to explain the whereof of it.

RADIUM TEST IN CHICAGO.

Photographs Taken by Substance That Emits Light and Heat.

A minute quantity of the rare metal known as "radium" from the fact that it has been discovered to radiate heat and light spontaneously has reached Chicago. Its property of diffusing light has been tested by W. C. Fuchs, X ray expert, and a successful photograph has been made by the aid of the light from the radium alone, says the Chicago News.

One grain of the precious substance, which retails at about $1,000,000 a pound, was received recently by Mr. Fuchs from Professor Max Slaby of the University of Berlin. The sum of $150 was paid for the contents of the tiny hermetically sealed glass receptacle, this being less than the price asked for absolutely pure radium, as a small quantity of bromide was mixed with it. Enough pure radium to equal the weight of a one carat white diamond would be worth about $3,200, while the diamond could be bought for $150.

The radio activity of radium varies according to its approximate purity, ranging from forty times to 7,000 times the radio activity of uranium. That secured by Mr. Fuchs has the minimum radio activity. When examined in a dark room the glass receptacle containing the substance appears to glow with a soft whitish light.

In experimenting with the light shed by the radium a stone removed by the aid of the X ray from the kidney of a patient was placed on a photographic plate which had first been enclosed in a black envelope, excluding all light from the plate. The glass receptacle containing the radium was then placed over the plate at a height of about an inch and a half and allowed to remain in that position for twenty-four hours. The plate was then developed in the usual way, and a good photograph was found to have been secured. Had the radium been absolutely pure the photograph could probably have been taken in a few minutes.

The substance maintains a temperature of 1 1/2 degrees C. above the surrounding atmosphere, which means a continual radiation of heat. If kept in one's pocket it is said that it would cause an X ray burn on the skin within a period of nine days.

Water in the Kalahari Desert.

The bushmen in the Kalahari desert often live scores of miles from places where water comes to the surface. During a certain part of the year sharp storms pass over the Kalahari, covering the apparently arid region with the brightest of verdure and filling for a few short days the water courses with roaring torrents. The bushmen know how to find water by digging in the bottoms of these dried up river beds. They dig a hole three or four feet deep and then tie a sponge to the end of a hollow reed. The sponge absorbs the moisture at the bottom of the hole, and the natives draw it into their mouths through the reed and then empty it into calabashes for future use.

The animals that inhabit such wastes as the Kalahari are of course accustomed to living upon very small and infrequent supplies of water. The Bechuanas do not lead their cattle to the drinking places oftener than once in two or three days. It is said that goats in the Kalahari frequently pass months without water.

Injured by Tallyho Overturning.

San Diego, Cal., June 29.—By the overturning of a tallyho Sunday Lieutenant Mason of the French cruiser Protest, now in the harbor, was severely injured and A. Blochman and his son, Al Blochman, bankers of this city, were also badly injured.

DISASTER TO BRITISH.

Mad Mullah Said to Have Destroyed Five Posts in Somaliland.

Paris, June 29.—A dispatch from Jibuti, Abyssinia, says the Mad Mullah has destroyed five British posts between Burao and Eobote, in Somaliland.

Thirty-nine British officers out of forty-two white men were killed in the engagements. Two thousand native soldiers were made prisoners.

A dispatch from Aden ten days ago stated that the British lines of communication between Berbera and Eobote were then threatened by the rebellious mullah and his forces. Reinforcements comprising three companies of the Hampshire regiment and 300 native soldiers were ordered to proceed from Aden to Somaliland June 20. About 14,000 native Abyssinians have been co-operating with the British forces in their efforts to check the mullah.

The campaign of Brigadier General W. H. Manning, who was sent to Somaliland last November after the reverses suffered by Colonel Swaine, having proved unsuccessful, he was ordered superseded June 21 by Major General C. C. Egerton, in command of the Punjab frontier.

It was reported from Aden June 23 that General Manning and Colonel Cobbe, who, it was feared, had been cut off near Damot, had succeeded in joining their forces and had reached Eobote in safety.

Operations against the mullah already have cost the British government more than $2,000,000 and considerable loss of life.

Bamboo Opals.

Bamboo opals are peculiar gems which are sometimes found in the stem of the bamboo. This gem is very rare from the fact that not one in a thousand bamboo stems contains it.

These vegetable growths are called tobacco by the Filipinos. Some of them are so similar—that is, they exhibit so perfectly the characteristics of the opal—that even experts frequently fail to distinguish them from the gem.

Why He Applauded.

"Are you fond of music?" asked a stranger of the young man at the concert who was applauding vigorously after a pretty girl had sung a song in a very painful way.

Labor Council May Appeal.

Minneapolis, June 29.—Albert H. Hall, one of the attorneys for the Trades and Labor Council, against which Judge Gray has granted a permanent injunction restraining it from participating in any sympathetic strike, says that no definite decision has as yet been reached by the council in regard to appealing from the decision to the supreme court.

RECOGNIZE KING PETER.

Several Additional Powers Congratulate Servian Ruler.

Belgrade, June 29.—The kings of Italy and Roumania, President Loubet of France and Prince Nicholas of Montenegro have added their congratulations to those already received by King Peter from other chiefs of states.

These telegrams are regarded as constituting official recognition of the new ruler of Servia.

PLAN RESISTANCE TO THE REMOVAL

Chippewas at Mille Lacs Gathering at Mossomine Point for Big Dance.

WILL COMMENCE ABOUT JULY 4

About Five Hundred of Them Said to Have Congregated Already at that Point.

The Chippewa Indians of the Mille Lacs tribe are gathering at Mossomine Point, Mille Lacs lake, for a big dance, says the Milaca Times. They expect to commence on July 4th and will keep up the festivities for six weeks. About 500 Indians are now collected there and more are coming from remote points, as the tribe has been arranging for the gathering for the past month. The Indians are very reticent concerning the reasons for the gathering but it is suspected that they are planning on some kind of resistance to the proposed removal to the White Earth reservation and the pow-wow is held to decide on a course of action.

Indian Agent Simon Michelet, of White Earth, passed through the city this afternoon en route to Mille Lacs lake to hold a council with some of the Indians. He stated that the above report, he thought, was exaggerated considerably. He knows of the Indians coming together there, but he says it is for the purpose to meet him regarding some other matters, and not for any concerted action to plan an opposition to the removal to White Earth.

The money which was appropriated by congress for the removal of these Indians, some 900 of them, to White Earth, is not available until July 1. Agent Michelet states that he can do nothing until he receives his orders from the department, but as soon as they give the orders the Indians will be removed at once. He confidently expects now that he will start by the middle of July. Some ten families at a time will be moved and they will be allowed to select their own allotments at White Earth.

The Indian agent stated that he thought it was the white people around Mille Lacs lake who are really making the trouble. The traders do not care to see the Indians leave and many of the large lumber firms would like to see them stay. The Indian is sometimes prejudiced by these very people, and they receive their cues from them and act accordingly.

DIED VERY SUDDENLY.

Four Year Old Baby of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lagerquist—Mother and Other Baby Very Sick.

Almost before Art Lagerquist reached West Superior from this city, being called by a telegram stating that his baby was very sick, the baby died. This was Grace, the four year old girl, and she died of scarlet fever.

The remains of the little girl arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and were interred in Evergreen cemetery. They were accompanied by Arthur Lagerquist. The services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Richard Brown. Now Mrs. Lagerquist and the other baby are very low, and it is understood, their recovery is doubtful.

A telegram from West Superior states that Mrs. Lagerquist has a very severe case of scarlet fever, and that she cannot survive.

BASE BALL NUBS

The regular Brainerd team went to Staples yesterday for a game with the team of that city and won by a score of 16 to 7. The Brainerdites are said to have put up a fine article of ball and completely outclassed the opposing team.

Brainerd Elks 16; Aitkin 10. The Brainerd base ball fans saw an exhibition of the national game at the ball park yesterday that for listlessness, poor playing, rag chewing etc. etc., equaled, if not excelled, the worst ever played in this city.

The game had been advertised pretty well and Dr. Watkins was due on the rubber for the locals. He was disappointing yesterday and did not seem to be able to deliver the goods. This was one bad feature. Then the locals hit Banderob so hard that there was not really any fun watching the scores pile up. A gentleman by the name of Yates, of Aitkin, umpired and he was the subject of several very wordy onslaughts both by the players and the management of the local Elk team. There was something very ragged about his umpiring and along about the sixth inning another man was substituted in his place.

Banderob was taken out of the box by the Aitkin management and Houska was substituted. He did not do any better and the scores kept piling up at a rapid pace. Banderob went in again and still the pace that kills was not checked. A total of twenty hits were made off these two pitchers. Dr. Watkins was not in his good old form yesterday and he allowed eight hits. The feature of the game were the home runs by Engbretson, Joe Howe and Myers. Before the game was finally finished most of the people were actually tired of the exhibition.

It has been truthfully said that Brainerd and Aitkin can never play a game without a rag chewing contest. This statement was verified yesterday with particular emphasis. Any other two teams would have played the game yesterday without the slightest difficulty, but there was nothing they could agree upon and when it came to decisions the umpire was found not to be the whole thing.

The following is the score by innings:
B. P. O. E., 1 0 3 5 0 0 7 0 x—16.
Aitkin, 0 2 0 3 2 2 0 0 1—10.

Gollmar Circus.

Gollmar's circus will be in Brainerd July 10. The following is taken from the Audubon, Ill., Advocate: "Gollmar Bros.' Circus appeared here and the verdict of our people is that it was the best performance ever given in Audubon. The parade given at 10 a. m. received many favorable comments and their menagerie contains a large collection of rare and costly animals. The performance had many novel and startling features. The aerial juggling, tumbling, trapeze trained elephants and cake walking horses are superior in their line. Special mention must be given the Dahns, a lady and a gentleman, wire walkers. They turned somersaults, waltzed, etc. Wertz and Adair's acrobatic feats were loudly applauded. John Rooney and John Willis did some wonderful somersault riding. The performance was given in three rings. The features were too numerous to mention but there was no act given by an inferior performer to fill in as many of our shows do. The proprietors believe in conducting business honestly, no grafters or short change being tolerated with their show. No show has left a better reputation."

Will Be Open Evening Before.

The barbers of the city have decided to keep their shops open on the evening of July 3 until 11 o'clock at night. This is done on account of the day following being a legal holiday, Fourth of July. 211f

THE N. P. EXCURSION.

Sports not all Pulled Off--Some Kicking on the Manner in which Employees Were Received.

The Northern Pacific shop employees returned from their annual outing and picnic at Walker Saturday night a tired and rather depressed looking lot of people, but they all state that they had a great time. It rained some at Walker in the afternoon, but this only helped to make the day better, settling the dust and cooling off the atmosphere considerably.

The first section did not reach Brainerd until about quarter of 11 o'clock Saturday night. The second section followed immediately afterward. There were no mishaps reported. There was, however, considerable excitement up the line about thirty miles when it was reported on the first section that a man had fallen off the rear platform. The train was backed up some distance and it was found that the man who was not from Brainerd, got off purposely when the train had slowed up.

The biggest and most interesting part of the day was the sports.

They were not all pulled off, but they will be on the Fourth in this city. There is some complaint on the part of the shopmen over the picnic. They claim that they did not have the advantages for the sports etc. that they have had in former years when they went to Detroit.

The sports committee has not figured up the prizes etc., but they have a meeting tonight and the list will be published in the Dispatch tomorrow complete.

ANDERSON—KJOS

Brainerd Young Man is Married at Fargo to Miss Bertha Marie Kjos of That City.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized in Fargo on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. N. Kjos when her daughter, Miss Bertha Marie Kjos became the bride of Mr. Bernhard O. Anderson, of Brainerd. It was a pink and white wedding and the decorations were carried out with large clusters of beautiful roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ruedahl before an improvised altar of palms, ferns and roses. Preceding the ceremony a delightful musical program was played by Miss Lena Pederson. The Lohengrin wedding march announced the entrance of the bridal party. Miss Clara Kjos acted as maid of honor and Mr. Naveson as best man. The bride was beautifully gowned and carried brides' roses. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left on a wedding trip and will be at home Aug. 1 in Brainerd. Fargo friends extend congratulations. Fargo Call.

GAS FROM FIR STUMPS

New Illuminant Discovered by Professor Frankforter.

HAS STRONG HEATING POWERS.

By Means of "Destructive Distillation" the Dean of Minnesota University's Chemistry School Removes Turpentine and Tar, and This Process Develops the Gas. Each Stump of Douglas Fir Worth $200.

Discovery of a new illuminating gas which can compete with coal gas for illuminating purposes, the detection of processes by which a new turpentine in limitless quantity and of properties permitting its general use in manufactures and the arts, can be produced from material formerly thought worthless, and the solution of the problem of utilizing the byproducts of the great Douglas fir, forests of which cover thousands of square miles of the Pacific northwest, are the recent achievements of Professor George P. Frankforter, dean of the school of chemistry of the University of Minnesota, says a St. Paul special dispatch to the New York Herald.

Professor Frankforter's discoveries are the result of many months of experiments in the western forests and in the laboratories of the state university and are of immense commercial value. They relate entirely to the utilization of stumps of the Douglas fir left by the lumbermen and until now thought to have no value. These stumps cover a tremendous area of western "cut over" timber lands, and so little have they been regarded that it has been the custom to burn them out to rid the land of them and to permit agricultural operations. The burning process left ash deposit which for several years robbed the soil of its agricultural values. For each stump burned Professor Frankforter announces the owners have thrown away the equivalent of $200.

The Douglas fir is one of the best of the western timber trees and is much sought for building purposes. Its lower portions are filled with a resinous pitch, and the portions containing the pitch deposits have been valueless for lumber because of the impossibility of forcing the saws through the pitch soaked fibers of the log. For this reason the lumbermen have cut the trees, frequently eight to ten feet in diameter, at a height of twenty feet from the ground. This left the pitch soaked stump standing, to be burned or allowed to rot away.

Announcing the results of his discoveries, Professor Frankforter said the other day:

"It has long been known that the pitch in the abandoned stumps had a commercial value, but means of extracting it have not been at hand. It was to provide these means that I spent months experimenting. I have been astounded to find, by exact scientific methods, that 40 per cent of the abandoned stumps is valuable pitch. This pitch, properly treated, produces a turpentine inestimably superior to that now obtained from the southern forests, the supply of which is decreasing year by year.

"The new turpentine has all the chemical and medicinal qualities of the common commercial turpentine, but is absolutely free from its disagreeable smell and taste. These two features have been the greatest drawback to the more general use of turpentine in manufactures and the arts. The odor of the fir turpentine is mild and balsamic, and its taste is mild and pleasant. It might be utilized in a thousand ways, even in chewing gum and for soda fountain flavors, so pleasant is its taste.

"To give tersely the results, I will say that each stump contains 40 per cent of its bulk in pitch. It contains five or six cords of wood. Of the pitch in the stump 20 per cent can easily be resolved into turpentine, 30 per cent into tar oil and 50 per cent into common tar. The tar is an excellent product and can find ready sale. The minor product is pyroligneous acid, containing acetic acid.

"All the products of the fir stumps can be removed by what is technically known as 'destructive distillation.' One of the most marvelous features is that during the distillation process the fir gives out a gas of strong heating and illuminating powers, sufficient to maintain the process and furnish the means of extracting the products desired for commercial purposes. The distillation pays for itself and leaves the products of the pitch practically clear profit.

"After all the products have been extracted—turpentine, tar oil, tar, acids, gas—there is still left a charcoal the superior of which is hard to find. Regarding the gas given off, it is a strong illuminant, and with reduction operations carried on on a large scale it would be produced in volume sufficient to conduct extensive gas lighting operations.

"A new source of turpentine at this juncture is especially important. I have made thorough tests of the western product and am able to announce that the south has a new competitor in the field which will supply a better article and in larger quantity than it has ever been able to do. The United States yearly supplies three-fourths of all the turpentine used throughout the world."

Professor Frankforter has been conducting his experiments at New Whatcom, Wash., where there are large mills and extensive forests.

Chippewas at Mille Lacs Gathering at Mossomine Point for Big Dance.

About Five Hundred of Them Said to Have Congregated Already at that Point.

The Chippewa Indians of the Mille Lacs tribe are gathering at Mossomine Point, Mille Lacs lake, for a big dance, says the Milaca Times. They expect to commence on July 4th and will keep up the festivities for six weeks. About 500 Indians are now collected there and more are coming from remote points, as the tribe has been arranging for the gathering for the past month. The Indians are very reticent concerning the reasons for the gathering but it is suspected that they are planning on some kind of resistance to the proposed removal to the White Earth reservation and the pow-wow is held to decide on a course of action.

Indian Agent Simon Michelet, of White Earth, passed through the city this afternoon en route to Mille Lacs lake to hold a council with some of the Indians. He stated that the above report, he thought, was exaggerated considerably. He knows of the Indians coming together there, but he says it is for the purpose to meet him regarding some other matters, and not for any concerted action to plan an opposition to the removal to White Earth.

The money which was appropriated by congress for the removal of these Indians, some 900 of them, to White Earth, is not available until July 1. Agent Michelet states that he can do nothing until he receives his orders from the department, but as soon as they give the orders the Indians will be removed at once. He confidently expects now that he will start by the middle of July. Some ten families at a time will be moved and they will be allowed to select their own allotments at White Earth.

The Indian agent stated that he thought it was the white people around Mille Lacs lake who are really making the trouble. The traders do not care to see the Indians leave and many of the large lumber firms would like to see them stay. The Indian is sometimes prejudiced by these very people, and they receive their cues from them and act accordingly.

DIED VERY SUDDENLY.

Four Year Old Baby of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lagerquist—Mother and Other Baby Very Sick.

Almost before Art Lagerquist reached West Superior from this city, being called by a telegram stating that his baby was very sick, the baby died. This was Grace, the four year old girl, and she died of scarlet fever.

The remains of the little girl arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and were interred in Evergreen cemetery. They were accompanied by Arthur Lagerquist. The services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Richard Brown. Now Mrs. Lagerquist and the other baby are very low, and it is understood, their recovery is doubtful.

A telegram from West Superior states that Mrs. Lagerquist has a very severe case of scarlet fever, and that she cannot survive.

BASE BALL NUBS

The regular Brainerd team went to Staples yesterday for a game with the team of that city and won by a score of 16 to 7. The Brainerdites are said to have put up a fine article of ball and completely outclassed the opposing team.

Brainerd Elks 16; Aitkin 10.

The Brainerd base ball fans saw an exhibition of the national game at the ball park yesterday that for listlessness, poor playing, rag chewing etc. etc., equaled, if not excelled, the worst ever played in this city.

The game had been advertised pretty well and Dr. Watkins was due on the rubber for the locals. He was disappointing yesterday and did not seem to be able to deliver the goods. This was one bad feature. Then the locals hit Banderob so hard that there was not really any fun watching the scores pile up. A gentleman by the name of Yates, of Aitkin, umpired and he was the subject of several very wordy onslaughts both by the players and the management of the local Elk team. There was something very ragged about his umpiring and along about the sixth inning another man was substituted in his place.

Banderob was taken out of the box by the Aitkin management and Houska was substituted. He did not do any better and the scores kept piling up at a rapid pace. Banderob went in again and still the pace that kills was not checked. A total of twenty hits were made off these two pitchers. Dr. Watkins was not in his good old form yesterday and he allowed eight hits. The feature of the game were the home run drives by Engbretson, Joe Howe and Myers. Before the game was finally finished most of the people were actually tired of the exhibition.

It has been truthfully said that Brainerd and Aitkin can never play a game without a rag chewing contest. This statement was verified yesterday with particular emphasis. Any other two teams would have played the game yesterday without the slightest difficulty, but there was nothing they could agree upon and when it came to decisions the umpire was found not to be the whole thing.

The following is the score by innings:
B. P. O. E. 1 0 3 5 0 0 7 0 x—16.
Aitkin, 0 2 0 3 2 2 0 1—10.

Gollmar Circus.

Gollmar's circus will be in Brainerd July 10. The following is taken from the Audubon, Ill., Advocate: "Gollmar Bros.' Circus appeared here and the verdict of our people is that it was the best performance ever given in Audubon. The parade given at 10 a. m. received many favorable comments and their menagerie contains a large collection of rare and costly animals. The performance had many novel and startling features. The aerial juggling, tumbling, trapeze trained elephants and cake walking horses are superior in their line. Special mention must be given the Dahns, a lady and a gentleman, wire walkers. They turned somersaults, waltzed, etc. Wertz and Adair's acrobatic feats were loudly applauded. John Rooney and John Willis did some wonderful somersault riding. The performance was given in three rings. The features were too numerous to mention but there was no act given by an inferior performer to fill in as many of our shows do. The proprietors believe in conducting business honestly, no grafters or short change being tolerated with their show. No show has left a better reputation."

The barbers of the city have decided to keep their shops open on the evening of July 3 until 11 o'clock at night. This is done on account of the day following being a legal holiday, Fourth of July. 21-7

THE N. P. EXCURSION.

Sports not all Pulled Off--Some Kicking on the Manner in which Employes Were Received.

The Northern Pacific shop employees returned from their annual outing and picnic at Walker Saturday night a tired and rather depressed looking lot of people, but they all state that they had a great time. It rained some at Walker in the afternoon, but this only helped to make the day better, settling the dust and cooling off the atmosphere considerably.

The first section did not reach Brainerd until about quarter of 11 o'clock Saturday night. The second section followed immediately afterward. There were no mishaps reported. There was, however, considerable excitement up the line about thirty miles when it was reported on the first section that a man had fallen off the rear platform. The train was backed up some distance and it was found that the man who was not from Brainerd, got off purposely when the train had slowed up.

The biggest and most interesting part of the day was the sports.

They were not all pulled off, but they will be on the Fourth in this city. There is some complaint on the part of the shopmen over the picnic. They claim that they did not have the advantages for the sports etc. that they have had in former years when they went to Detroit.

The sports committee has not figured up the prizes etc., but they have a meeting tonight and the list will be published in the DISPATCH tomorrow complete.

ANDERSON—KJOS

Brainerd Young Man is Married at Fargo to Miss Bertha Marie Kjos of That City.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized in Fargo on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. N. Kjos when her daughter, Miss Bertha Marie Kjos became the bride of Mr. Bernhard O. Anderson, of Brainerd. It was a pink and white wedding and the decorations were carried out with large clusters of beautiful roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ruedahl before an improvised altar of palms, ferns and roses. Preceding the ceremony a delightful musical program was played by Miss Lena Pederson. The Lohengrin wedding march announced the entrance of the bridal party. Miss Clara Kjos acted as maid of honor and Mr. Naveson as best man. The bride was beautifully gowned and carried brides' roses. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left on a wedding trip and will be at home Aug. 1 in Brainerd. Fargo friends extend congratulations.—Fargo Call.

STORIES OF MAJOR POND

His Experiences as a Manager
of Celebrities.

TWICE ACTED PART OF GOOD ANGEL

How He Became a Call Boy in a St.
Louis Theater and Helped Charlotte Cushman, the Actress—Pushed Mark Twain in a Barrow to "Keep Him Moving"—Novel Experience
With Ian Maclaren.

The late Major James Burton Pond,
author, soldier, editor and the most remarkable manager of celebrities the world has ever known, as a boy assisted his father in aiding slaves to escape
northward, their house being a station
for slaves, says the New York American.

After serving his apprenticeship in Fond du Lac, Wis., Major Pond began to set type on the Herald of Freedom at Lawrence, Kan. There the "call" came to him as it had come to John Brown, and he became one of those who made history that will live to the end of time as a rider in the little frontier town of Kansas. This was in 1856. As a member of Brown's band
he carried one of the Sharp's rifles
known as the Beecher Bible for the reason that the guns were shipped
west by abolitionists as Bibles.

Major Pond was one of the pioneers
to Denver and Pike's peak in 1859.
When the civil war broke out he enlisted, rose from the ranks until he
was made a major, and in 1863 was
one of the seventeen survivors of a band of 118 Union cavalrymen who were attacked by Quantrill in the Exeter Springs massacre. Next we see him in Utah, the proprietor of the first gentle paper there, the Salt Lake Tribune.

When Ann Eliza Young apostatized,
Major Pond was delegated to go with
her to Washington, where she told her story of Mormonism to congress. Then
the genius of the major as a manager
became apparent. He at once saw the possibilities of making money with Ann Eliza Young as a lecturer. He yielded to the wishes of Denver and
let her speak there first. Of this experience he said: "I got the school-
room, charged $1.50 a ticket, sold 400
tickets and took in $600 that evening.
I remember when she was to appear
in Denver I went to the house and did not know her. She was dressed up
and—well, she looked pretty. The leading Methodist minister—she had been converted by a Methodist, and so they claimed her—introduced her to one of
the largest audiences ever seen in Denver.

"I have never found so earnest a talker," the major said afterward. "I have heard a great many too. She had a cause. She was in dead earnest.
She was able in two years from that
time to leave Utah with her children
and her family, and she never returned."

Major Pond was a good angel on two notable occasions in the life of Charlotte Cushman, the great actress. The first was when from a tramp printer he became a call boy in a St. Louis theater at $7 a week. He began the night Charlotte Cushman opened her engagement as Lady Macbeth. She had complained that the boy who carried the basket containing her jewels
had loitered. She needed some one she could rely upon, who would walk faithfully by her side with that precious basket. To the little lad Pond fell the honor.

"So that night I walked home with Charlotte Cushman, the great actress,"
he writes, "carrying her basket to her room in the Planters' House. I did this until I became ill and was obliged to send a substitute, who brought the basket on Saturday night. After the
play, when the lights were turned off
with the exception of the dressing
room, I heard Miss Cushman asking
for me. I replied, and she came across the stage to me, hoped I would not be ill and put a gold in my hands. I scratched about and got to where there
was sufficient light to discover that I was the owner of a twenty dollar gold piece. I changed my lodging that night."

Years passed before the call boy and
the actress again met. He was giving
entertainments in the Boston theater,
and they were meeting with great success. Suddenly he thought of Charlotte Cushman and offered her $1,000
if she would give a reading there.

When he gave her the certified check
for the amount it was with the remark, "Miss Cushman, that $1,000 is
the interest on $20 that you invested
with me in 1857." Then he told her of the incident.

Of Mark Twain he always had deli-ghful reminiscences. He had pushed the humorist in a wheelbarrow when
the latter insisted that his contract
with Major Pond expressly stipulated
that he be "kept moving."

"At a little town in Minnesota we had
been waiting since 4 o'clock in the morning," said Major Pond, "and Mark
got uneasy. He said: 'I am tired of this business. Pond contracted with me to travel, and here I am waiting
for late trains that never arrive.'"

"Mrs. Clemens said, 'My dear, are
you not making a fool of yourself?'
'No, I am not,' Twain replied; 'I contracted to travel, and I insist upon his
keeping the contract.' So he sat down
in a wheelbarrow, and I pushed it."

"We went up to Vancouver next.
Mark went to bed and stayed there
four days. In fact, he never puts on his clothes unless he is obliged to.
Nearly all his books are written in this position. When the reporters called I had to see that the bed was all right
and send them up for their interviews."

And he paid this tribute to Mark Twain: "Mark Twain is today the most popular writer in the English language. Few men have ever written whose humor has so many sides, such

In his "Eccentricities of Genius,"
which he published in 1900, the major
sums up his memoirs of the famous
men and women with whom he had to do in the course of his professional career. He describes Mark Twain as an inimitable letter writer and gives his specimen from Mr. Clemens, sent him an excuse for not writing a letter:

"Dear Pond—Oh, b'gosh, I can't. I hate
writing. Ever thine, MARK."

One of the experiences of Pond's boy-hood days that were never forgotten
was his first meeting with the great
Charles Sumner. It stamped this fact
on his brain:

"Charles Sumner was an aristocrat.
He was my father's ideal. We walked nine miles to hear him speak. Father
always spoke of him as the Hon.
Charles Sumner, so great was his reverence of the man. He enjoyed the speech immensely. I do not know whether I did or not. Father sat near,
with the intention of rushing up and
greeting him when he had finished, but
the Hon. Charles was too quick for
him. He had vanished.

"Father said, 'James, the Hon.
Charles Sumner is going to Milwaukee
tomorrow morning, and we can ride
with him a part of the way.' He was in the drawing room car when we got
on the train. Father stepped up to him and said:

"The Hon. Charles Sumner, I have
read your speeches. I have felt it the duty of every American to take you
by the hand. This is my son. He has returned from the Kansas conflict."

"Hon. Charles Sumner did not see father or his son, but he saw the brakeman and said, 'Can you get me a place where I will be undisturbed?'
Father's heart was almost broken."

While relating reminiscences of his acquaintance with notable people Major Pond once said to a reporter of the Washington Post:

"I never go to Iowa that I don't have a peculiar experience. I shall never forget taking Ian Maclaren (Dr. John Watson) out there several years ago.
The time I speak of we were going
from St. Paul to Des Moines. Down
in Iowa the conductor said the train
was half an hour late. Then he said it was an hour late. We were due in Des Moines at 7:15, and the lecture
was to begin at 8 o'clock. Dr. Watson
became much worried and asked the
conductor the cause of the delay. 'The
heavy wind,' replied the official. It
was blowing a perfect hurricane that
night, just as I had known it to blow
in Iowa and Wisconsin years before.
'Why, surely,' said Dr. Watson, 'the
wind cannot be blowing hard enough
to impede the progress of a train. A great, big, heavy locomotive.' 'My
dear fellow,' I said, 'I've seen the wind
out in this country blow a train right
off the track.' I have, too, at East St.
Louis, in a tornado.

"We finally arrived in Des Moines
at 8:15, and there was a committee to meet us at the depot. Dr. Watson had become very hungry, and there was
no diner on and no wayside eating
house. 'Don't ever let this happen
again, major,' he said. 'Why, if anything should happen out here we might starve to death.' 'Don't you worry,'
I said; 'if the train gets blown off the track we will drop in at a farmhouse
and eat and stay all night. You are in
a civilized country, inhabited by thousands of people, and have no cause
to become alarmed.' In Des Moines
Dr. Watson insisted on going to the hotel for something to eat before his lecture.

"Very sorry, but the dining room is closed, and we have no cafe," said the hotel clerk.

"But I'm nearly starved and want
food," implored Dr. Watson.

"I can't help it. Our rules will not allow any one in the dining room after
the doors close."

"Just then Dr. Watson caught sight
of some one coming out of the dining room door. He rushed over and pushed
his way past the head waiter, who vainly tried to stop him.

"I want food! I want food!" he cried, rushing toward a table. Some one had just finished eating and had
left a few pieces of bread and scraps
of other food. Dr. Watson, despite the importuning of the head waiter, sat
down and ate those scraps as if he
never expected to get something to eat
again. The funny part of it was that
he arrived at the theater a few minutes
before 9, delivered one of the best lectures he ever made and rushed away
for the train which I had kept waiting
twenty minutes."

Major Pond took Henry Ward Beecher
to England two or three times. He was especially proud of these trips, and
he wrote a book entitled "Summer in England With Beecher." He was a devoted admirer of Beecher and was never so happy as when he had a willing listener to his panegyrics on Plymouth's great pastor.

Queen Draga's Vanity Cost Her Life.

It is said to be certain that the late
King Alexander of Serbia and Queen
Draga were warned that they were in danger of assassination, says the Paris
correspondent of the New York Times.
Quite recently the late king transferred through a Paris bank over
2,000,000 francs into safe keeping in England. He himself was only too anxious to leave Belgrade; but, it is asserted, a piece of feminine vanity intervened and cost his own life and the queen's. Queen Draga had, to use her
own phrase, "nothing to go away in."
She was awaiting the consignment of a particularly smart traveling dress
from one of the principal Paris dress-
makers. This failed to arrive in time,
the arrangements for flight were deferred, and just as it happens to people who linger in a burning house,
escape was at last cut off.

ADVERTISED AS MINING COM-PANY DIRECTORS.

TO BREAK UP THE PRACTICE

GOVERNMENT SERVANTS OC-CUPYING TWO PLACES.

Washington, June 29.—Assistant
Secretary Armstrong of the treasury
department has returned to the city
from a brief business trip to New York, during which he looked into the cases of Messrs. Samuel W. Thompson and Walter R. Eaton, employees of the customs house, who are advertised
as members of the board of directors
of a mining company whose business
has been under investigation by an official of the postoffice department. Mr.
Armstrong has requested a written report from these officials respecting
their connection with the company and
the alleged misrepresentations by the company in its advertisements of the positions held by them under the government, and says he expects these reports to be ready for collector Strahan
today. Mr. Armstrong made it very plain that Messrs. Thompson and Eaton will be required to give up their
connection with the company if they expect to remain in the customs service, and that if their positions were misrepresented with their consent and
approval, they will be liable to removal
from office.

Treasury officials express decided
objections to persons employed in the
customs service engaging at the same
time in some other business, and intend to break up this practice as far
as possible, holding that it is detrimental to the best interests of the service.
There are many occasions, officials
point out, where the government needs
the service of an employee in the customs department outside of regular
office hours, and if they happen to be engaged in business which interferes
with this, then the government is the sufferer. For this and other reasons
officials believe the best interests of
the public service will be conserved by employees not engaging in other business.

HOLD CHURCH SERVICES.

Citizens of Jackson Venture Out at Night for the First Time in Years.

Jackson, Ky., June 29.—For the first time for many years evening
church was held here Sunday. Prior to this time the citizens were afraid
to leave their homes after dark. Tom Tharp, who introduced the usual Saturday night shooting carnival, was arrested by provost guards after a two-mile chase over the mountains. This incident had a quieting effect Saturday and Sunday. Joe Crawford and Ed Tharp, the men accused of burning Ewen's hotel, were released in $1,000 bail each and will return to work for Judge James Hargis. Their cases will be taken up by the special jury July 20.

NEW CITADEL DEDICATED.

Senator Hanna Chairman of the Occasion at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., June 29.—A fine new
citadel, to be used as headquarters for
the Salvation Army in this city and vicinity was dedicated Sunday. Senator Hanna was chairman of the occasion and made an address of half
an hour's duration. He spoke almost entirely of the work done by the army
and praised it. He said that if he had
time to preach he would help the Salvation Army with his voice. Commander Booth-Tucker said that the
citadel in this city will be an inspiration to the army in other cities to erect
a similar structure. The property is worth $100,000.

STORIES OF MAJOR POND

His Experiences as a Manager
of Celebrities.

TWICE ACTED PART OF GOOD ANGEL

How He Became a Call Boy in a St.
Louis Theater and Helped Charlotte Cushman, the Actress—Pushed Mark Twain in a Harrow to "Keep

With Ian MacLaren.

The late Major James Burton Pond,
author, soldier, editor and the most remarkable manager of celebrities the world has ever known, as a boy assisted his father in aiding slaves to escape
northward, their house being a station
for slaves, says the New York Ameri-

Pond du Lac, Wis., Major Pond began to

1856. As a member of Brown's band
he carried one of the Sharp's rifles
known as the Beecher Bible for the
reason that the guns were shipped
west by abolitionists as Bibles.

Major Pond was one of the pioneers
to Denver and Pike's peak in 1859.
When the civil war broke out he enlisted, rose from the ranks until he
was made a major, and in 1863 was
one of the seventeen survivors of a
band of 118 Union cavalrymen who were attacked by Quantrell in the Baxter Springs massacre. Next we see him in Utah, the proprietor of the first English paper there, the Salt Lake Tribune.

When Ann Eliza Young apostatized,
Major Pond was delegated to go with
her to Washington, where she told her
story of Mormonism to congress. Then
the genius of the major as a manager
became apparent. He at once saw the
possibilities of making money with Ann Eliza Young as a lecturer. He yielded to the wishes of Denver and
let her speak there first. Of this experience he said: "I got the school-
room, charged $1.50 a ticket, sold 400
tickets and took in $600 that evening.
I remember when she was to appear
in Denver I went to the house and did not know her. She was dressed up
and—well, she looked pretty. The leading Methodist minister—she had been converted by a Methodist, and so they
claimed her—introduced her to one of
the largest audiences ever seen in Denver.

"I have never found so earnest a
have heard a great many too. She had a cause. She was in dead earnest.
She was able in two years from that
time to leave Utah with her children
and her family, and she never returned."

Major Pond was a good angel on two
notable occasions in the life of Charlotte Cushman, the great actress. The first was when from a tramp printer
he became a call boy in a St. Louis theater at $7 a week. He began the
engagement as Lady Macbeth. She
had complained that the boy who carried the basket containing her jewels
had loitered. She needed some one she
could rely upon, who would walk faith-
fully by her side with that precious
honor.

"So that night I walked home with Charlotte Cushman, the great actress,"
he writes, "carrying her basket to her room in the Planters' House. I did this until I became ill and was obliged to send a substitute, who brought the basket on Saturday night. After the
play, when the lights were turned off
with the exception of the dressing
room, I heard Miss Cushman asking
for me. I replied, and she came across
the stage to me, hoped I would not be ill and put a coin in my hands. I scratched about and got to where there
was sufficient light to discover that I
was the owner of a twenty dollar gold piece. I changed my lodging that night."

Years passed before the call boy and
entertainments in the Boston theater,
and they were meeting with great success. Suddenly he thought of Charlotte Cushman and offered her $1,000
if she would give a reading there.

When he gave her the certified check
for the amount it was with the remark, "Miss Cushman, that $1,000 is
the interest on $20 that you invested
with me in 1857." Then he told her of
the incident.

Of Mark Twain he always had delightful reminiscences. He had pushed
the humorist in a wheelbarrow when
the latter insisted that his contract
with Major Pond expressly stipulated
that he be "kept moving."

"At a little town in Minnesota we had
been waiting since 4 o'clock in the
morning," said Major Pond, "and Mark
got uneasy. He said: 'I am tired of
this business. Pond contracted with
me to travel, and here I am waiting
for late trains that never arrive.'"

"Mrs. Clemens said, 'My dear, are
you not making a fool of yourself?'
'No, I am not,' Twain replied; 'I contracted to travel, and I insist upon his
in a wheelbarrow, and I pushed it.

"We went up to Vancouver next.
Mark went to bed and stayed there
four days. In fact, he never puts on
his clothes unless he is obliged to.
Nearly all his books are written in this position. When the reporters called I
had to see that the bed was all right
and send them up for their interviews."

And he paid this tribute to Mark Twain: "Mark Twain is today the most

popular writer in the English language. Few men have ever written
whose humor has so many sides, such

In his "Eccentricities of Genius,"
which he published in 1900, the major
sums up his memoirs of the famous
men and women with whom he had to
do in the course of his professional
career. He describes Mark Twain as an infatigable letter writer and gives his specimen from Mr. Clemens, sent
him an excuse for not writing a letter:

Dear Pond—Oh, b'gosh, I can't. I hate
writing. Ever thine, MARK.

One of the experiences of Pond's boy-
hood days that were never forgotten
was his first meeting with the great
Charles Sumner. It stamped this fact
on his brain:

"Charles Sumner was an aristocrat.
He was my father's ideal. We walked
nine miles to hear him speak. Father
always spoke of him as the Hon.
Charles Sumner, so great was his reverence of the man. He enjoyed the
speech immensely. I do not know whether I did or not. Father sat near,
with the intention of rushing up and
the Hon. Charles was too quick for
him. He had vanished.

"Father said, 'James, the Hon.
Charles Sumner is going to Milwaukee
tomorrow morning, and we can ride
with him a part of the way.' He was
in the drawing room car when we got
on the train. Father stepped up to
him and said:

"The Hon. Charles Sumner, I have
read your speeches. I have felt it the duty of every American to take you
by the hand. This is my son. He has returned from the Kansas conflict."

"Hon. Charles Sumner did not see
father or his son, but he saw the
brakeman and said, 'Can you get me a
Father's heart was almost broken."

While relating reminiscences of his acquaintance with notable people Major Pond once said to a reporter of the Washington Post:

"I never go to Iowa that I don't have
forget taking Ian MacLaren (Dr. John Watson) out there several years ago.
The time I speak of we were going
from St. Paul to Des Moines. Down
in Iowa the conductor said the train
was half an hour late. Then he said it was an hour late. We were due in Des Moines at 7:15, and the lecture
was to begin at 8 o'clock. Dr. Watson
became much worried and asked the
conductor the cause of the delay. 'The
heavy wind,' replied the official. It
was blowing a perfect hurricane that
in Iowa and Wisconsin years before.
'Why, surely,' said Dr. Watson, 'the
wind cannot be blowing hard enough
to impede the progress of a train. A
great, big, heavy locomotive.' 'My
dear fellow,' I said, 'I've seen the wind
out in this country blow a train right
off the track.' I have, too, at East St.
Louis, in a tornado.

"We finally arrived in Des Moines
at 8:15, and there was a committee to
meet us at the depot. Dr. Watson had become very hungry, and there was
no diner on and no wayside eating
house. 'Don't ever let this happen
again, major,' he said. 'Why, if any-
thing should happen out here we might
starve to death.' 'Don't you worry,'
I said; 'if the train gets blown off the
track we will drop in at a farmhouse
and eat and stay all night. You are in
a civilized country, inhabited by thousands of people, and have no cause
to become alarmed.' In Des Moines
Dr. Watson insisted on going to the hotel for something to eat before his
lecture.

"Very sorry, but the dining room is closed, and we have no cafe," said the
hotel clerk.

"But I'm nearly starved and want
food," implored Dr. Watson.

"I can't help it. Our rules will not allow any one in the dining room after
the doors close."

"Just then Dr. Watson caught sight
of some one coming out of the dining room door. He rushed over and pushed
his way past the head waiter, who
vainly tried to stop him.

"I want food! I want food!" he cried, rushing toward a table. Some
one had just finished eating and had
left a few pieces of bread and scraps
of other food. Dr. Watson, despite the
importuning of the head waiter, sat
down and ate those scraps as if he
never expected to get something to eat
again. The funny part of it was that
he arrived at the theater a few minutes
before 9, delivered one of the best lectures he ever made and rushed away
for the train which I had kept waiting
twenty minutes."

Major Pond took Henry Ward Beecher
to England two or three times. He
was especially proud of these trips, and
he wrote a book entitled "Summer in England With Beecher." He was a devoted admirer of Beecher and was
ing listener to his panegyrics on Plymouth's great pastor.

Queen Draga's Vanity Cost Her Life.

King Alexander of Serbia and Queen
Draga were warned that they were in
danger of assassination, says the Paris
correspondent of the New York Times.
Quite recently the late king transferred through a Paris bank over
2,000,000 francs into safe keeping in England. He himself was only too
anxious to leave Belgrade; but it is
asserted, a piece of feminine vanity in-
tervened and cost his own life and the
own phrase, "nothing to go away in."
She was awaiting the consignment of a particularly smart traveling dress
from one of the principal Paris dress-
makers. This failed to arrive in time,
the arrangements for flight were de-
ferred, and just as it happens to people who linger in a burning house,
escape was at last cut off.

ADVERTISED AS MINING COM-PANY DIRECTORS.

TO BREAK UP THE PRACTICE

GOVERNMENT SERVANTS OC-CUPYING TWO PLACES.

Washington, June 29.—Assistant
Secretary Armstrong of the treasury
department has returned to the city
from a brief business trip to New
cases of Messrs. Samuel W. Thompson and Walter R. Eaton, employees of the customs house, who are advertised
as members of the board of directors
of a mining company whose business
has been under investigation by an official of the postoffice department. Mr.
Armstrong has requested a written report from these officials respecting
their connection with the company and
the alleged misrepresentations by the
company in its advertisements of the
positions held by them under the government, and says he expects these reports to be ready for collector Strahan
today. Mr. Armstrong made it
very plain that Messrs. Thompson and Eaton will be required to give up their
connection with the company if they expect to remain in the customs service, and that if their positions were misrepresented with their consent and
approval, they will be liable to removal
from office.

Treasury officials express decided
objections to persons employed in the
customs service engaging at the same
time in some other business, and in-
tend to break up this practice as far
as possible, holding that it is detrimen-
tal to the best interests of the service.
There are many occasions, officials
point out, where the government needs
the service of an employee in the customs department outside of regular
office hours, and if they happen to be
engaged in business which interferes
with this, then the government is the
officials believe the best interests of
the public service will be conserved by
by employees not engaging in other business.

Citizens of Jackson Venture Out at Night for the First Time in Years.

Jackson, Ky., June 29.—For the
first time for many years evening
church was held here Sunday. Prior
to this time the citizens were afraid
to leave their homes after dark. Tom
Tharp, who introduced the usual Saturday night shooting carnival, was arrested by provost guards after a two-
mile chase over the mountains. This incident had a quieting effect Saturday and Sunday. Joe Crawford and Ed Tharp, the men accused of burning Ewen's hotel, were released in
work for Judge James Hargis. Their cases will be taken up by the special
jury July 20.

Senator Hanna Chairman of the Occasion at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., June 29.—A fine new
citadel, to be used as headquarters for
the Salvation Army in this city and
vicinity was dedicated Sunday. Senator Hanna was chairman of the occasion and made an address of half
an hour's duration. He spoke almost entirely of the work done by the army
time to preach he would help the Salvation Army with his voice. Commander Booth-Tucker said that the
citadel in this city will be an inspiration to the army in other cities to erect
a similar structure. The property is worth $100,000.

RAID ANARCHIST'S ROOMS.

Art Treasures Valued at Over $200,000
Seized.

Paris, June 29.—The police raided
the apartments of Parmeggiani, a well known anarchist, who returned here after having been expelled from France. Parmeggiani escaped by the roof, but the police seized art treasures, pictures, etc., valued at over $200,000. The authorities believe the property to be the proceeds of robberies committed by international thieves
